

Integrating Ethics:

From Thought to Action

Discussion Questions: “For the Good of the Show”

1. Who/what is more important? The show, the audience, or the actor’s feelings/self esteem?
2. The actresses were “basically adults.” How would his decision be different/received if the actresses were children? Teenagers?
3. People are going to “pay” to see the show. Why does this make the decision more difficult or important?
4. People are going to be unhappy with the ethical decisions sometimes. How does one make the best decision?
5. In the video, what alternatives could the director have chosen?
6. What’s right and wrong for the “long term.” How did this affect our decision making?
7. In the video, do you think the impact on the individual actor worth the result?
8. How do we decide when having to choose between the individual and community?
9. How much of the director’s decision was for his own good?
10. In the video, if you were the director, what would you have done?
